

More than a lender,
a Ministry.

Your church matters,
and so do you.

A photograph of a church steeple against a blue sky with white clouds. The steeple is dark-colored with a cross at the top. There are two smaller crosses on the sides of the steeple. The sky is a clear blue with some wispy white clouds.

Since 1953, CDF Capital has helped church leaders and individuals bring light to the world through the thoughtful stewardship of their capital.

All for a singular purpose,
to help churches grow.

CDF Capital's ministry is simple:

*we lend money
to churches.*

Your church, and your service to it, are an important part of God's story of redemption and transformed lives. It is a necessary part of God's redemptive plan for humankind.

The Church is his Plan A for humanity.

And with God, there is no plan B.

Part of the interest paid is passed on to investors

People and churches invest money with CDF Capital

We lend that money to churches like yours

As those churches grow, they pay back their loans

Investments in CDF Capital are used for one thing:
to help churches grow.

You are more than just a church leader; you are a steward.

Nehemiah needed wood and stone to rebuild the wall, Paul built tents and relied on generosity to fund his travels, all of us are called to be generous stewards in support of ministry. While these stories in the Bible are a great reminder of the necessity of materiality in fulfilling God's plan, materiality is not all that is required for God's kingdom to grow.

The Church needs stewards, people who are willing to make choices that drive kingdom growth. And choosing to work with CDF Capital does just that. While CDF Capital may not always have the best rates, our rates are fair, and we are more than a lender, we are a ministry.
