NFL FLAG Participant Accident Insurance Offering

Participant accident insurance is also available for NFL FLAG participants (including players, coaches, and officers), while participating in participating in supervised and sanctioned NFL FLAG activities. To be eligible for NFL FLAG's free participant accident insurance option and to ensure full coverage, leagues must upload roster details to NFL FLAG via the Matrix platform before the first game of each season. Only players on an active NFL FLAG roster will receive free participant accident coverage.

If you are a league operator who will be utilizing Matrix team builder or placing an equipment order through Matrix, there are no additional steps to take for those participants to be covered.

League Operators who wish to be eligible for the participant accident insurance but DO NOT plan on using Matrix for team building or for placing an equipment order, you must still upload players. Please contact leaguesuccess@rcxsports.com with any questions, or for help.
