TRAVEL TRADE UPDATE | VISIT GALVESTON

Galveston Island blends coastal charm, Victorian architecture, and incredible history with fresh Gulf seafood and Seawall strolls — here's the latest for your clients' next Texas getaway.

WHAT'S NEW

- Cruise Boost: MSC Cruises' new $150 million terminal powers the nation's fourth-busiest cruise port.
Hotel Glow-Ups: Grand Galvez, The Tremont House, and Hilton Galveston Island Resort newly renovated.
Restored Retreat: The Mansard House, an adults-only stay, shines thanks to Restoring Galveston's Ashley and Michael Cordray.
Bay Queen Riverboat paddlewheeler experience launches from the Historic Harbor, offering day cruises, happy hour sunset tours and private charters.
The iconic Tremont House Rooftop Bar opens after a complete renovation, offering stunning unobstructed panoramic views from the ocean to the harbor.
Awards abound, including a MICHELIN Key awarded to Luxury Bed & Breakfast Carr Mansion as well as a James Beard Award bestowed upon Gaido's Seafood Restaurant, known for its fresh Gulf seafood and legendary dining status.
Galveston Island featured: Matador Network, the Guide to Adventure; entire episode of "Cheat Meal" television program; and episode of "PhotowalksTV with Jefferson Graham."
Wheel the World completes comprehensive accessibility audit to promote accessible travel to Galveston Island.

COMING SOON

- Royal Caribbean announces the reigning record-holder for world's largest cruise ship, Icon of the Seas, will home-port in Galveston beginning in August 2027.
More Cruises: Norwegian Cruise Lines begins sailing year-round from Galveston and Disney Cruise Lines follows with year-round sailings beginning in 2027.
Battleship Texas, a veteran of WWI and WWII and the world's last surviving dreadnought battleship, will be permanently docked at Pier 15 after a complete transformation into a modern, compelling and technologically-advanced museum.
