Now Available

Brief One

Brief One for law enforcement generates concise transcript summaries and identifies moments of interest from digital evidence, helping officers and investigators quickly get an overview, find key details, and verify information. Whether you're inside case evidence, search results, or a single piece of digital evidence, Brief One surfaces insights directly within Axon Evidence.

Updates to Existing AI Solutions

Draft One: Smart Suggestions

This enhancement prompts officers with incident-specific questions based on the transcript, helping them add critical context such as location, reasons for a stop or visual cues that may not have been captured. These tailored prompts support more complete and accurate first drafts.

Auto-Transcribe: New Languages Available in Auto-Translate

Now supporting even more languages, expanding accessibility and enhancing evidence review. Follow the link below for a list of languages now generally available.

Coming Next Quarter

AI Auto-Tagging

Auto-Tagging just got smarter. Now, when CAD data is missing or incomplete, AI Auto-Tagging uses multiple signals to suggest metadata, like Evidence ID and categories, directly in the Axon App and Axon Evidence. Officers simply review and confirm in seconds, making evidence tagging faster, more accurate, and more complete.
