

Boost your agency's success with EMC's loss control services

EMC Insurance offers more than just coverage—we help prevent losses before they happen. Whether it's reducing injuries through operational changes, implementing new work policies, or offering targeted safety courses, we have the tools you need to succeed.

3 reasons to promote EMC's loss control services

Our goal is to empower you with products and services that set you apart in the market—and that's exactly what our loss control services do. Because we know your customers so well, we're able to deliver better, more targeted risk solutions—not only giving your current customers the protection they need to keep their business safe, but also to help you attract new ones. Here are three more benefits to promoting our loss control services:

Keep your customers happy and loyal

When your customers benefit from our loss control services, they save on operational costs and improve safety. And when your customers are happy, they're more likely to stay with you and EMC, ensuring long-term relationships and steady income for your agency.

Boost your bottom line

Using EMC's loss control services can help your customers improve their loss ratios, which in turn improves yours. Better loss ratios boost your agency's financial performance and profitability.

Increase your revenue

Show your customers the added value of insuring with EMC by highlighting our comprehensive loss control services. This can help you stand out to prospective clients, enhancing your agency's appeal and maximizing your contingent compensation potential.

Protect your customers

We provide a range of loss control solutions to protect your customers and support their long-term success. With niche industry experts, we can better anticipate future risks, ensuring safety and minimizing disruptions. Here's how we can help:

- Reduce overexertion injuries
- Prevent slips and falls
- Assess and control hazards
- Manage injuries
- Prevent vehicle accidents
- Evaluate reconstruction costs

Let's do great things together

As a trusted advocate for your customers, you're an essential part of protecting their business. You and your customers deserve the very best risk solutions, value, and service—and that's what we aim to help you deliver, every day.
