

ROUSH®

ADVANCED ENGINE TECHNOLOGIES

For over 30 years, the name Roush has been synonymous with high performance engine technologies. Jack Roush's legendary record of success and a true passion for performance has evolved into today's Roush, a leading automotive supplier with over 2,500 employees in facilities across the globe. Our scope has expanded, but our focus has remained the same: a commitment to delivering incomparable reliability and power; to making cars go faster, look better, last longer, and above all else, outperform the competition.

PROVEN PERFORMANCE

Jack Roush became the only professional drag racer to venture into NASCAR, SCCA and IMSA road racing, sports car racing and IRL oval racing — with success in every series. Today Roush Racing, the world's largest supplier of integrated motor sports services, operates eight teams in NASCAR's three premium divisions. That's why so many leading car manufacturers trust the Roush family of companies to develop and support their motor sport and engine development programs. Our advanced engine technologies have supported a broad spectrum of activities.

INCLUDING:

- NASCAR Winston Cup – Series Oval and Road Race
- NASCAR Busch Series – Oval and Road Race
- NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series – Oval Race
- IRL – Indy Car Oval Race
- ARCA – Oval Race
- IMSA – Road Race
- SCCA – Road Race
- SPEEDCAR Series – Road Race in Dubai
